

- Call for papers and proposals for NORD I&D -

The 14th Nordic Conference on Information and Documentation

Trusting the Web

Bergen, Norway, June 21.- 22., 2010

Welcome to Scandic City Bergen Hotel all librarians, information specialists, web designers, document specialists in archiving – and all those who are interested in the theme: “ Trusting the Web”!

Topics:

- A) Changing of communication
Blogging, Facebook, Twitter, networking, OpenDoc society,
- B) Media convergence
Mobile and wireless technology, devices, screen sizes, document types, Wikipedia, Wolfram|Alpha, etc,
- C) The quality of scholarly communication
Bibliometrics, preparing for publication, Open Access benchmarking of performance indicators,
- D) Semantic web
Web 3.0,
subject terms, data mining, relations, thesauri, NKOS, etc.

Please submit the abstracts to the committee before 1st of February 2010.
The committee details will appear on the website.

The conference website will be available from September 2009, at www.fagbibliotek.no – preliminary program will be available from 20th of April 2010.

Would you like a personal reminder of the conference when the registration is opened? Please send an e-mail to Kristin.Roijen@hio.no

The 14th Nord I&D is arranged by the Norwegian Special Libraries Association (NFF) in cooperation with colleagues from Denmark, Finland, Iceland and Sweden.